

Hamlet Bonus!

*Write a couple
o' couplets*

Ten bonus points await you to receive if you create two couplets we believe.

Convince us now to take a second look by scribbling it inside your own yearbook.

- Write two rhymed couplets in iambic pentameter (the style you'd find in Hamlet)
- They don't have to be related to Hamlet, to each other, or to anything in particular
- Content can be about anything (senior year?) but must be school appropriate
- They should look like you're signing a friend's yearbook (or they're signing yours)
- Make it look like a yearbook page with photo(s) of you (and friends if you wish)
- You may combine partner efforts onto one page, but each person must create 2 couplets
